

INCLEMENT WEATHER PROCEDURES

Inclement Weather

When inclement weather is a possibility, Brady Independent School District officials continually monitor weather conditions during the overnight and early morning hours. The district takes several factors into consideration before making a decision to cancel, delay, or dismiss school early due to inclement weather. These primary factors include: the health, safety and welfare of students and staff; the transporting of students to and from school; and the disruptions caused when school starts late, dismisses early or is cancelled.

Cancellations, Delays and Early Releases – *How Decisions Are Made

When inclement weather threatens normal school operations, the following steps are taken:

1. The District's Director of Transportation, Assistant Superintendent, and other staff will evaluate the roadways and travel conditions across the district.
2. The Superintendent consults with BISD Director of Transportation, Assistant Superintendent, local emergency management officials, Tx DOT, and the McCulloch County Sheriff's Office.
3. After taking into account all the information that is received from external and internal sources, the Superintendent will make a decision as early as possible whether to delay or cancel school.

The Communication Process – *What Happens Next

When a decision is made to cancel, delay school, or dismiss school early, the district will notify parents using our ParentSquare communication system and the Brady ISD website. In addition, information about school closures, delays, or early dismissal will be communicated through the following media, including but not limited to:

- Local television stations: KTXS
- Local radio stations: KNEL
- Brady ISD Facebook
- Brady Standard Newspaper Facebook

Because of the uncertainty of weather conditions, we ask that parents and staff monitor local media, the BISD website, and email before heading to school or sending children to the bus stop. An important rule of thumb to note is, if there is no announcement from Brady ISD, then classes will be held on a normal schedule.
